Request:

Can you please tell me who is the Council's Director responsible for traffic signage?"

The Head of Service Responsible for traffic signage is Phil Scott, Head of Environment, Housing & Leisure

May I please have that information, and may I also have a copy of the council's scheme of delegation to officers in highway and rights of way matters?

*North Tyneside Council's scheme of delegation is available online at:
<https://my.northtyneside.gov.uk/category/304/council-constitution>*

Thirdly, the unlawful traffic signs at Mount Close are still in place. Will you please tell me why these have not also been removed?

Information not held - arrangements have however been made to remove the signs in the near future
