Request:

I would like to know if any fines have been issued to any residents for leaving their wheelie bin out after collection over the last 3 years.

There have been no fines issued to residents for leaving their wheeled bins out after collection over the last 3 years.

What is the actual cost to North Tyneside Council for lost and stolen wheelie bins over the last 3 years?

This information is not held as requested.

However please see below. Note that the figures provided are for the purchase of wheeled bin containers and this can include to replace those damaged or stolen and for new developments.
