

North Tyneside Council

Reference: FOI1196

Request:

Is it possible for a part payment to be made via the website payment system for paying parking charges/PCN fines or does the system only accept payment for the full amount owed?

Response:

No, the online payment option on the Council's website only accepts the full value of the outstanding penalty charge.

If motorists wish to make part payments, then they can do so through the telephone payment option. Part payment of a penalty charge does not freeze progression of the penalty charge unless prior arrangement has been agreed with Parking Control.
