

North Tyneside Council

Reference: FOI3754

Request:

Could you answer me the following question:

By how much has North Tyneside Council's block grant from the central government been reduced by each year over the past 10 years and specifically what was the overall reduction in the block grant between the years 2019/20, 2020/21 and 2021/22 (please give figures for each year and the difference between each year).

Response:

The information requested is currently published in North Tyneside Council's Revenue control budget for each year requested under the 'Financed from' section on their website and can be accessed on their website via the link below.
