Request:

I would like to know how many times your council has carried out enforcement action against Section 95 Home Office accommodation in the past five years.

By Section 95 housing, I am meaning housing commissioned by the Home Office and used to house asylum seekers while they apply for status.

By enforcement I am meaning any enforcement related to the condition of the housing and the living conditions inside, such as environmental hazards.

Response:

There has been no enforcement action related to the condition of the housing/property or the living conditions for any of the asylum seeker homes
