Request:

Please release the following information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act -

How many recycling bins have been refused in your area in the years 2014-2017?

Answer: The recycling bins were delivered to North Tyneside residents in 2009/10. Further bins have been delivered to new developments, but we are not aware of anyone refusing a recycling bin.

What is the most common reason for a recycling bin refusal?

Answer: N/A

Which street appears to be the worst for recycling?

Answer: North Tyneside, as other local authorities, has good and not so good performing areas. However, we are unable to establish the worst performing street.
