

North Tyneside Council

Reference: RFI 1803088

Request:

For the last full financial year, please provide details of any public subsidies or other monetary funding provided by the council to tourist attractions in the council area. These tourist attractions should be permanent in nature, such as museums, art galleries, science centres, etc., not temporary attractions such as farmers markets, travelling fairgrounds, etc.

The 2017/18 base budgets showing the public subsidies and operational costs of running museums in the North Tyneside borough can be located using the link below.
