Request:

I am just emailing with regards to some information I am after under the Freedom of Information Act. I understand that under the act, I should receive the following information within twenty working days.

The information I am looking for is as follows.

1a) From 2012 - present, how many children in your local authority were of Primary school age. (ages 5-11). I would like this information broken down by year

See below

1b) From 2012 - present, how many children in your local authority were of secondary school age. (ages 11-16). I would like this information broken down by year

See below

The published data provided by ONS should answer this question:

5) Between 2012 - present, how many "informal enquiries" did the local authority make to ensure home-schooled children were getting an adequate education. I would like these figures broken down by year

Parents are contacted every year to ask them to provide information on their child's education.

6) Between 2012 - present how many School Attendance orders were given to children that had previously been home-schooled. I would like these figures broken down by year.

There have been no school attendance orders issued in this time.
