For the purposes of this study, internal applicants should be considered as applicants that already work at the school where a vacancy was advertised.

Response:

Recruitment services are offered to schools via a third party/ private sector organisation and as such the Local Authority does not hold this data. In addition schools are able to place their own recruitment advertisements and manage their own recruitment processes directly. The enquiry would need to be directed to schools individually to gain this information.

Email addresses for schools can be found on the council’s internet site by using the following link:
