Guidance notes

1. Students attending a college of further education or 6th form who are resident in the North Tyneside area should only complete this form.
2. Student must be attending a full time course of study and travelling 3 miles or more between their home and nearest Further Education College or school providing the course.

If the course you attend is available at a college nearer to your home travel assistance will be calculated to the nearest college.

e.g. If you are attending Newcastle College and the course you attend is available at Tyne Met College and Tyne Met is closer to your home travel will only be considered from home to Tyne Met.

3. Applicants must be aged 16 and under 19 on 31st August 2024.
4. Confirmation of continuing attendance will be sought from the college or school at the end of each term before payment is made.
5. The scheme provides reimbursement of 50% of the standard commercial price of the Network One Student Ticket or Nexus Metro Student Card
6. Reimbursement will be made by BACS payment to the applicant. The applicant must provide photocopy of travel ticket or proof of purchase.
7. Reimbursement is calculated in respect of term time only and is based on the most appropriate use of travel resources and the cheapest ticket option available to the home to college.

The number of travel zones is calculated using the most direct route even though this may not be the most convenient route or the route that you use.

No payment is made in respect of travel to alternative sites or placements even if they are part of the course.

8. Please return this Application to:
